

Morgan Dressage
association

Dedicated to promoting and supporting Morgan Horses in dressage.

---

2005 Scholarship Awardees

Sally Anderson: Sally lives in Big Fork, Montana and grew up on a working cattle ranch riding her Morgans. Currently she competes with the talented stallion, Iron Forge Starman, at I-1, after taking Mehrs Eloquence to Grand Prix. Sally clinics with Debbie Rhiel-Rodriquez and Bonnie Bonnelo, she plans to use her 2005 scholarship money to clinic with Debbie at four different clinics.

Sally Anderson and Iron Forge Starman

Nancy Francine: Nancy lives in Los Alamos, California and competes at First Level with her gelding, Skydance Midnight, in both Morgan and Open Dressage shows. Currently Nancy trains with Susan Derr Drake of Santa Ynez, VA. Nancy has several clinics and auditing opportunities in her region to further her dressage goals.

Nancy Francine and Skydance Midnight

Lelia Irvine: Lelia lives in Arlington, Washington and currently shows the gelding Rogue's Flight Time through Third Level in 2004. Lelia's family has been involved in Morgans since 1969 and she and her family were integral in creating sport classes for Morgans, including dressage, in the Northwest. Lelia used her funds to clinic with Linda Zang, "O" dressage judge. Lelia and Flight are currently showing at 2nd/3rd level and schooling some 4th level movements. They have raised their median score from about 62 percent to an average in 2005 of 66 percent.

Lelia Irvine and Rogue's Flight Time

Kathleen Moyer: Kathleen lives in Marysville, Washington and shows her gelding, Alabama Showman. Kathleen currently shows at Training level, showing at both Open and Morgan rated Dressage shows. Kathleen plans to clinic with Marina Genn, who was long-listed for the Canadian Olympic dressage team, in one of her three-day clinics.

Susan Snyder: Susan Snyder lives in Corvallis, Oregon and shows her gelding, Chintimini Starburst, in First Level competition in 2004 with plans to move to Second Level in 2005. Susan trains with Debbie Evans and plans to use her scholarship funds to continue her bi-monthly lessons with Debbie.

Lela Stone on Whippoorwill Ebony

Lela Stone: Lela is a professional dressage rider and instructor living in Frederick, Maryland. She bought the Morgan gelding, Whippoorwill Ebony (aka Black Tie), from her current trainer, Cathy Echternach who took Ebony to Grand Prix. Lela is currently competing successfully at I-1 and hopes to get to Grand Prix with Ebony. In addition, she is bringing along her newest Morgan, Blue and White Raven, and has successfully shown him at local schooling shows with scores in the mid-60's.